Next door to D'Angiolillo (see entry), this little single-room café was established over 100 years ago. Franco Fioravanti, a charismatic man, only sells wine, his famous pork rolls and sandwiches. He roasts a whole pig a day! Flavoured with herbs, his fabulous Porchetta Romana is sought after by Romans and tourists alike. He has several scrapbooks of reviews from many European newspapers, going back many years, which he is proud to show you. Try one of his rolls with a glass of local red wine from the Castelli Romani wine district.
